

First Presbyterian Church,
Wilmington, North Carolina

The Nave and Chancel patterned after Scottish abbeys of the medieval Gothic era, the Chapel in simple Norman architecture with its imported windows and interior hand-made Holland brick, the educational building and gymnasium in the more informal Gothic of a later period, combine to form one of the handsomest Churches in the South. Woodrow Wilson was a member in his youth. The Church was founded before 1760.

35

PLACE
ONE CENT
STAMP
HERE

MADE IN U. S. A.

POST CARD